

Joe Purdy, Walking Down

I dont mind walking down
I dont mind walking down
Cuz Lord i've been trying to get my feet on the ground and i dont mind walking down, on down

Been looking for the rhythm of the streets
Been looking for the rhythm of the streets
New york new york do you remember me cuz i've been looking for the rhythm of the streets, of the streets

Aint no use in riding on the train no there aint no use in riding on the train already been standing in the early morning rain and there aint no use in riding on the train, on the train

Im gonna get to you somehow Honey im gonna get to you somehow i know youve been lonely, you might not have known Cuz i'm gonna get to you somehow, baby somehow

We gonna be together one of these days Honey we gonna be together one of these days and I dont care what they do, dont matter what they say cuz we're gonna be together one of these days, baby one of these days

I dont mind walking down
I dont mind walking down
Cuz Lord I've been trying to get my feet on the ground and i dont mind walking down Baby down down down
baby down down down
baby down down down

I got you now, i got you now
baby down down down
