

Joe, Shame

She never gave a reason why
It's possible my love
Wasn't strong enough
Now that love is said and done
Come and turn around
Maybe is better in the long run

[Chorus:]
Girl it's a shame
Things that you say
The games that you keep playin'
It hurts me more each day
And, girl I can't take it (shame)
So much procrastination (shame)
And I just can't -help belatin'- (not sure of this one)
Who am I to judge it
Baby shame on me

You really made me realize
Summer, spring and fall
Things won't change at all
But every time I see your smile
Darling, you don't know
(Maybe it's harder just to let go)

[Chorus x4:]
Girl it's a shame
Things that you say
The games that you keep playin'
It hurts me more each day
And, girl I can't take it (shame)
So much procrastination (shame)
And I just can't -help belatin'- (same thing)
Who am I to judge it
Baby shame on me
