

Joe, Testify

Lady i use to be the type
To share all my lonely nights
And wake up in the morning to a woman i barely knew or liked and,
Then you came along and changed my life
And only now i realize
I would never wanna jeopardize your heart and our love thats why
La la la da la la
I got to testify
La la la da la la da
La la la da la la la
Cuz you are so special lady
Testify ... yeah.
IM so glad that I found you..
IM so glad that you choose me..

I just love the fact that your,
Your so spiritually grounded,
When i thought i lost my faith it was you who helped me find it baby
And through all my hopes and dreams
You always supported me
Never once did you doubt me
You just cheered me on and told me to be strong and thats why
La la la da da la la
I got to testify...

No matter how hard it gets your always by my side lady
Thats why i got love for you
Thats why i got trust for ya
No matter how lost i get
I still some how find my way back to you and
And i promise i promise always trust and be true to you girl
And thats why
Thats why i got to testify
Cuz you are so wonderful to me
You are my precious queen lady
And i love how you always got my back lately
Whether IM wrong or right
And your always always by my side
Thats why i love ya
Ill do the same for ya
To the day i die da da da
La la la la la na na [repeat over til fade]
