

Joe Walsh, Song For A Dying Planet

Is anyone out there?

Does anybody listen or care anymore?

We are living on a dying planet,

We're killing everything that's alive,

And anyone who tries to deny it

Wears a tie

And gets paid to lie

So I wrote these songs for a dying planet,

I'm sorry but I'm telling the truth,

And for everybody trying to save it

These songs are for you, too.

Is anyone out there?
