

Joee, So I Cry

Girl, what did I do to be so wrong?
I felt the love we have was strong,
you broke my heart in two.
And i struggle to find the reasons why,
you said that you would say good-bye and now I'm alone
by the phone.

So I cry, as I wait for you, visions in my eyes make me
wanna think of you at night.
So I cry, as I wait for you visions in my eyes make me
wanna think of you at night.

I am sorry for the wrong i've done to you.
I promise I will make it up to you,
don't ever go away.
And I struggle to find my reasons why you said that you would say good-bye and now I'm alone by the phone.

So I cry, as I wait for you, visions in my eyes make me
wanna think of you at night.(repeat 4x)
