

Joerg Vogeltanz, Guardian Angel

in the freeze of my room dark men are approaching very near is the doom all the towers fall

i never wasted blood of my own but now i fade away why is it me to be shown the inside of my soul?

take away the love you gave me
i feel falling apart
last night a guardian angel

so far and gone are the clouds i used to hide through my youth so near the hate of the crowd with their yellow shoes
