

Joerg Vogeltanz, Illegible, Sonofabitch (For Bunuel)

pardon the man
he's only the doctor step aside and let a shotgun spit out who are you?

in my dreams i saw policemen suiciding in my sleep i held a weapon in my hand in deepest trance i felt my train back home derailing it will never bring me back to this white sand pardon me because i fear the thinker inside his head he slays a soundless chickenbrain

who are you?

give me your watch you're only phoning with yourself in my dreams i shall arrive in villalobos i'm a hunchback sailor coming home from sea when sun is setting moon will shine forever life's a dream when you are dreaming me
