

Joerg Vogeltanz, Pattern

pattern

the deeper my wrinkles get the faster i always decide the darker the shadows i fled it's you i feel close to all night because every hour we shrink together beneath the surface and all of our faraway dreams jump out in the light of our days embraces and aches made us a pattern inside arabesque love we are free we're an indestructable carpet

made of years
and made of you and me

our souls became two-in-one we've interwoven our days immortals we are but not shown eternity's cold frightful face spread yourself

let's build a body kiss yourself
so that i feel your lips
