

Joerg Vogeltanz, Tulips

hear the subways breathing highways fall asleep oh those thin lines ssssecant no don't start to weep

let us plant some tulips
let's pretend we're in love don't resist my true lips heaven send me tulips

all the stardust fishes floating upside down oh those skies so vvvvvvicious can't you hear their sound?

can't resist your fuel lips

it's the end of matter it's the time for doubts deny the heavy weather stay hidden in the clouds

let's pretend we'll survive you will touch my cool lips

let me kiss your cruel lips
