

JoEveritt, On the Gravel

I'm the one who tries his best the one who never seems to rest I'm the one who just won't do the one who's loving you I'm the one who just can't stop I'm the one who never does shut up I'm the one who dreams about things he lives without

out of nowhere, new day on the gravel, I lay
earth to venus, far away
on the gravel, I stay you're the one who's on my mind the one who took so long to find you're the one and this is true lost without you you're the one who makes me breathe beating heart, and i believe you're the one i'm dreaming of I'm lost without your love

in the foggy morning light when the dewdrops are settling I will see your silhouette, you better bet that if you whisper back to me across the green and grassy sea I'll inhale the air between, between us
