

Joey Albert, Memories

Seems like I just touch your hand
Feels like I've known you so long
Dreams like the ones that we made out of sand
Made out of fire, burning strong
And it seems like the day has not passed
Feels like you've never gone
Dreams like the ones that we wanted to last
Wanted to keep growing on

CHORUS

Into my memories
Reflections of all my memories
Unfolding with all of love's memories
There'll never be more than enough
All my days, yesterdays need you and...

Seems like I wish you were here
Feels like the day's not complete
Dreams like the ones that our love made so clear
Made it so clear that I need

CHORUS

More than just memories
Reflections of all my memories
Unfolding with all of love's memories
There'll never be more than enough
All my days, yesterdays need you and...

Seems like I wish you were here
Feels like the day's not complete
Dreams like the ones that our love made so clear
Made it so clear that my mem'ries need
