

Joey Albert, Over And Over

There are times when I hardly know who I am
&#039;Cause I try to pretend, oh, I try to pretend
There are tears when I feel my world&#039;s fallin&#039; apart
I think of you and then
I feel all the love again

CHORUS

Over and over again
I try to pretend love never ends
Once again, ooh, over and over again
I go through it all but love never ends
