

Joey Albert, Without You

Without you to hold me
And heal my heart
To guide me and keep me
From falling apart

My life is so empty
so hollow and cold
Footsteps and echoes
Of nowhere to go

CHORUS

Without you, without you
I know I'm all alone
I can't go on this way
Day by day

Without you, who am I
What am I to do
My life's out of focus
and so are my views

I need you to give me
The strength to go on
A reason for hope
And writing this song
