

Joey Daniels, Crazy Than Usual

Vers 1

Put on a mini skirt

A tiny little shirt

It's friday night I just got paid

Gonna call up all my girls

Drive down to Jimmy's bar

'cause we know that's where the boys all play

Pre

I wanna sing out loud

Gonna move these feet

Wanna be the dancing queen

Gonna drink margaritas 'til the sun comes up

I don't wanna get no sleep

Chours

There must be a full moon aout tonight

'cause I'm crazier than usual

There's something in the air

I can't quite describe but it's making me physical

I wanna let go I'm gonna lose control

I'm flirtin' with danger

There must be a full moon out tonight

'cause I'm crazier than usual

Verse 2

Gonna buy some guy a beer

And whisper in his ear

Something that I'd never say

Well his face is looking burnt

He's squirming like a worm

He turns and he walsk away

Repeat Pre

Repeat Chours

Bridge

The midnight hour and I'm under spell

The moon has got me and I'm raising hell

Don't wanna see the break of day

'cause I like it I love it

Feeling this way

There's something in the air

I can't quite describe but it's making me physical

I wanna let go I'm gonna lose control

I'm flirtin' with danger

There must be a full moon out tonight

'cause I'm crazier than usual
