

Joey Daniels, This Is Me Missing You

My heart, feels like rain
But I can't explain this funny shining
This is me, missing you

Oh wow, all my day can't concentrate
Ain't no use trying
This is me, missing you

And I'm holding you near
Here in my heart (here in my heart)
And I'm calling your name
Wherever you are (wherever you are)

And every night in my dreams
You're the one that I come to
And this is me, missing you

This is me missing you

Oh your face showed up
In my coffee cup
There's no denying
This is me, missing you

Down I'm cold, I know
I feel like crying
This is me, missing you

Yeah I'm holding you near
Here in my heart (here in my heart)
And I'm calling your name
Wherever you are (wherever you are)

And every night in my dreams
You're the one that I come to
And this is me, missing you

And mister let me tell you
And listen and listen good
This is me missing you

Everywhere I go I see ya
Baby nothing can come between us

And I'm holding you near
Here in my heart (here in my heart)
And I'm calling your name
Wherever you are (wherever you are)

And every night in my dreams
You're the one that I come to
And this is me, missing you

Yeah this is me missing you
