Remax

Here he is, knows about self esteem
Feeling good, the place is jumpin 20 years of plays, maybe hes still in a dream got the voice, got the style on his resume got the fresh gear on he bought yesterday all the girls showin him love, they feelin him like that (you cant ignore it)

like that (you're waiting for it)
like that (so get him on it)
So get your focus on it, if you really want it

Girl you got it right here, I know you feelin me
When you take it to the floor, I know you feelin me
When i whisper in your ear, I know you feelin me
If i want to, I can take you
In the back of the cab, I know you feelin me
And in the back of the club, I know you feelin me
We can do it like that, I know you feelin me
If I want to, I can take you

Its friday night, lookin for some company Rubbing on a chick, feelin on her booty he knows theres nothing wrong with some nudity Spill the news, hes taking his shirt off Its been then taking your shirt off Theres nothing you wont do if you show him love

like that (you cant ignore it)
like that (you're waiting for it)
like that (so get him on it)
So get your focus on it, if you really want it

Girl you got it right here, I know you feelin me
When you take it to the floor, I know you feelin me
When i whisper in your ear, I know you feelin me
If i want to, I can take you
In the back of the cab, I know you feelin me
And in the back of the club, I know you feelin me

People say theres something about him
But they can never put their fingers on it
They just know he take it off if he really want it Something in his eyes, something in that little grin
That let you know that he survive and hes here to win and no no aint no hocus pocus Stone cold, blow, and you know hes so focused Oh yes, I guess this kid is bad news
For all these badass crews and rap dudes
I better go slow it down with some attitude
A little arrogance charasmatic and charms attitude
We aint playin this is something that we had to do All love, Nexus, Generation 2

Lick your sexy lips for me, lips for me
Make your body hit for me, hit for me

Lick your sexy lips for me, lips for me
Your body make it sit for me, hit for me
