

Joey Tempest, Don't Go Changin' On Me

If you really want to love me
Then love who I am
But i you only want to change me, now baby
Im not your man
I might not be an angel
Hey, we are what we are
Set love free, not how you want it to be
Dont go changin on me
I was looking for a lover
When I found something true
I figured one day or another Id get lucky
Meet someone like you
Now I dont wanna lose you
Cause we think diferently
Set love free, not how you want it to be
Dont go changin on me
I know I might not be a hero
And say things you want me to
If you look for semoone perfect
Im afraid I just wont do
But if were meant to share this future
Come happiness or pain
If were meant to help each other
Thank got were not the same
So if you really want to love me
Then love who I am
But if you only want to change me, now baby
Im not your man
I might not be an angel
Hey, we are what we are
Set love free, not how you want it to be
Dont go changin on me
Set love free, not how you want it to be
Dont go changin on me
