

Joey Tempest, Losers

see your face hard to trace no parking space dont know what to do its Monday put the key in start the engine I can hear my mobile ringing its Tuesday when you remind me I forget now what the hell did I forget its Wednesday there can be only one winner how come were just a couple of losers
real estate interest rates need somewhere else to keep my faith its Thursday Im no freak or amateur I just dont know what I am here for its Friday mirror ball mirror ball whos the funkiest of us all its saturday
there can be only one winner
I got no lights on driving around wondering if theres any love left in this town its Sunday
