

Johan, Oceans

I've been hanging on so long
I've been living on my own
Waiting for you

I've been helpless since you're gone
Getting tired of being alone
Keep thinking of you

I cannot sleep you never call
I can't believe how deep I've fallen into you

So if you're lonely
Then I will swim the ocean
Pull me under water
Find me crawling on the ocean floor
If you need me
Then I will cross the ocean
Walk upon the water
The tides will bring me to the ocean shore
If you want me
Why don't you give a sign

You live in a different world
And all the seas have parted you from me
Getting close but I can't reach you
There's a giant gap between us
Can't you see

I can't take it anymore
I never make it to your door I might drown
But if you're lonely
Then I will swim the ocean
Pull me under water
Find me crawling on the ocean floor
If you need me
Then I will cross the ocean
Walk upon the water
Tides will bring me to the ocean shore
If you want me
But do you want me

I believe in time
I believe in time
Healing wounds it's all from the past
Leaves us cold
I believe you're mine
I believe I'm fine
But then again I'm lost without you now
I gotta get to you somehow
Before I drown

I can't take it anymore
I never make it to your door I might drown

But if you're lonely
Then I will swim the ocean
Pull me under water
Find me crawling on the ocean floor
If you need me
Then I will cross the ocean
Walk upon the water
Tides will bring me to the ocean shore
If you want me
Now do you want me
