

Johan, Out Of Reach

I can feel the time is right
There is a forecast the forecast is bright
Yeah

Here come my days of happiness and joy
Well go tell that to the other guy
He might think you're right

Out of reach and way out of mind
Got to make sure to stay out of sight
Yeah

How come I hear you knocking on my door
Mmm sure and all you find is loneliness
The blinds are closed and I'm already gone

I can see the time is right
For as a fortune the forecast is bright
Right

How come I don't believe you anymore
Mmm for all you bring is emptiness
Don't look for me cause I'm already gone

Out of reach out of mind
Out of sight out of mind
I'm already gone

Out of reach out of mind
Out of sight out of mind

Out of reach out of mind
Out of sight out of mind
Don't look for me cause I'm already gone

Out of reach out of mind
Out of sight out of mind
