

John Butler Trio, Home

Hard working people from another land looking for a little more Coming to this country for a helping hand
You know they sail their ships upon these shores
And they are lookin for a freedom that most of us don't appreciate But you know man we can't let them in Cos the government's full of racial hate

And then they got the nerve to say They be takin our culture away even though our ancestors tried to do the same to the Aborigine Seems strange to me man strange to me
Don't it seem strange to you That a country founded on immigration is so damned racist too

And i say Home Home is where the heart is yeah Home

And then they got the nerve to say they be takin our jobs away Even though half the jobs that we're working for are owned from overseas and the other half of the companies Yes Yes that they say that we rightly own They operate on aisle three third world
That's right yeah the sweat shop zone

And I say I don't know what's going on Don't know what the hell to say The government decides on letting refugees in and when they get here yes they are detained

And i don't know what's going on Don't know the reason why We live in an educated so called democracy
Where everybody decides to believe in lies Believe in lies

Home is where the heart is yeah Home.
