John Cale, Dead Or Alive

Sooner or later she said she'd be my friend Honest and faithful till the very end Well enough of that I'm tired of hearing it anyway She turns and smiles says goodbye in her inimical way Happy to see her in the back of a magazine Lying there nude sporting that stupid grin So get on with it straight on and porno bound but leave me out of it I'm not that proud Would've have taken you a long long time yes it would've taken'you a long long time Happy to see her in the back of a limousine Laughing and crying at everything she'd seen Well enough of that she should have known better anyway When I told her what I'd seen she was so ashamed Yes it would have taken me a long long time well it would've taken me a long long time The a year from Monday everything I said came true That's when the D.A. called me he said dead or alive for you They found her Dead or alive I want you dead or alive she said .....(xx times)
