John Cale, Mr. Wilson

I believe you Mr Wilson I believe the things you say And I'm always thinking of you When I hear your music play And you know it's true That Wales is not like California in any way And when I listen to your music You're still thousands of miles away Take your mixes not your mixture Add some music to our day Don't believe the things they tell you Don't let them get in your way And you know that it's true Wales is not like California in any way And everytime I hear hear your music You're still thousands of miles away Califorinia wine is fine...
