

John Fogerty, Little Girl (Does Your Mama Know)

(John Fogerty/Tom Fogerty)

Little Girl does your mama know you're out tonight and if she did would she die of fright just to know you're out with me

Little girl do you think that I'm a fool And if you do does it change your mind or will you love me all the time

I'm so much older than you you don't know what I'm going through I only know that this feeling inside
I can't hide I can't hide I can't hide

Little one I guess that we had better go I know I know I know baby don't you cry
I'll see you soon my little one Yes I will
