

John Frusciante, A Corner

I mean it
I wouldnt go out side
And walk around
Hey man fear for your life
But Ive reached this conclusion

Everyones in a corner
Face to the wall
I never looked the other way
Not really true at all
Greatest by confusion
It never lets me be
Well no one said to be here
I was punished by me

Ohh..

And theres a weeping cry
And times are melting
And they skip all the way up
To top

Greatest by confusion
Lets me down
Never lets me down
Everyones in a corner
Never turn around
Oh never turn around
Yea...the other way

Na na na na.
