

John Frusciante, I Will Always Be Beat Down

I am hopeful for you
Go from one to a few
Train the horses I ride
Cut the arrow with a knife

All the pastures of time move around and combine
Break the lost innocent child
Fateful forces which collide

You are this
You are this

I will always be beat down
I will always be down
I will always be beat down
I will always be down
