John Greaves, Peter Blegvad, Lisa Herman, Geg

It but incurs A lustre in a flood After many not dislodged.

And at each subsidence Half arises, Half holds to cloudy water Nature of its anchor kept occult.

We keep a current Flowing from a sluice. Cloud it with corrosives Hoping to appropriate What holds its own so well

What tips an ever wider wake.