

John Hiatt, I Spy (For The FBI)

I spy for the FBI

(I spy for the FBI)

I spy for the FBI

(I spy for the FBI)

I got an x-ray camera hidden in your house

That sees what I can't see

And that man you were kissin' last night

Definitely was not me, oh baby

I spy for the FBI

(I spy for the FBI)

I spy for the FBI

(I spy for the FBI)

Just because he was wearin' shades

You thought he didn't leave a clue

I got his name, I know his game

He's double-0 you know who, oh baby

I spy for the FBI

(I spy for the FBI)

I spy for the FBI

(I spy)

I've got the facts in the file

Baby I don't have to guess

I took that agent's fingerprints

Off of your new red dress, oh baby

I spy for the FBI

(I spy for the FBI)

I spy for the FBI
(I spy for the FBI)

I know when you're out
I know when you're in
I know where you're goin'
'Cause I know where you've been

I spy for the FBI
(I spy for the FBI)
Baby, I spy for the FBI
(I spy for the FBI)
Baby, I spy for the FBI
(I spy for the FBI)
