

John Kelly & Maite Itoiz, Scandals

Too many struggles, too many scandals,
How many people are trying to say?
There are too many children dying of hunger,
Too many problems in this world,
Too many struggles, too many scandals,
How many people are trying to say?
There are too many children dying of hunger,
Too many problems in this world,
Do we know how many people are falling into the pit of drugs?
Does anybody know what's going on?
Where is all this coming from?
Sometimes it's better not to think but this is reality.
Build a wall around you and pray for your soul.
Too many struggles, too many scandals,
How many people are trying to say?
There are too many children dying of hunger,
Too many problems in this world,
Too many struggles, too many scandals,
How many people are trying to say?
There are too many children dying of hunger,
Too many problems in this world,
Si vis pacem para bellum, si vis pacem para bellum.
Si vis pacem para bellum., si vis pacem para bellum.
