

John Kelly & Maite Itoiz, The secret forest

John liked to ride every night with his horse
Yu-lah yu-lah hey
And leaves the castle when nobony knows
Yu-lah yu-lah hey
Rode in the forest as fast as he could
Feelings the leaves of the trees on his face
Letting the horse driving him 'neath the full moon
Yu-lah yu-lah hey
He lost path on a dark Saint John's night
Yu-lah yu-lah hey
Something amazing that destiny hides
Yu-lah yu-lah hey
A magical fairy was looking at him
Her starry eyes of beautiful green
He fell in love like never before
Yu-lah yu-lah hey
And he tooks his horse to pick her up
And they rode together between two worlds
Their hair was flowing in the wind
Their love was floating in the wind
Despite the rules they still met every night
Yu-lah yu-lah hey
He took the horse and she crossed the line
Yu-lah yu-lah hey
A secret love always hidden behind
Building their world with the beats of their hearts
Letting the horse drive them 'neath the full moon
Yu-lah yu-lah hey
And he tooks his horse to pick her up
And they rode together between two worlds
Their hair was flowing in the wind
Their love was floating in the wind
And he tooks his horse to pick her up
And they rode together between two worlds
Their hair was flowing in the wind
Their love was floating in the wind
