

John Klass, When Things Seem So Wrong

When things Seem So Wrong
By John Klass

When you're in doubt

Trying to keep all fears out

The tears you hide

You'll only cry inside

*Things happen for a reason

It isn't easy to accept

You think all hope is gone

But it really hasn't left

Chorus

When things seem so wrong

You've got to hang on

Just pick up the pieces

And look right ahead

Don't give up cause instead

Things aren't so wrong

When the road ahead

Seems so uncertain

And all you do

Seems to crumble & fall

(Repeat * & **)

Troubles, they'll come and go

Tho' the mem'ries will last

If you stay right on hurtin'

Time will still pass

(Repeat Chorus)
