John Lennon & Yoko Ono, (Forgive Me) My Little

Two, one, two, three, four

Forgive me, my little flower princess For crushing your delicateness Forgive me, if you could forgive me

Forgive me, my little flower princess For selfishness Forgive me, forgive me

Well I know there is no way to repay you Whatever it takes I will try to The rest of my life I will thank you, thank you, thank you My little

If you'll forgive me, my little flower princess Never too late unless you can't forgive, hmmm

Time is on our side Let's not waste another minute 'Cause I love you my little friend I really love you

Give me just one more chance And I'll show you, take up the dance Where we left off The rest of our life is the-My little

I'm home
