

John Mayall's Bluesbreakers, Possessive Emotions

Possessive emotions creeping up on me
I wish my emotions had less jealousy
Don't want you to be with nobody else but me
Wherever you are that's where I want to be
Is it wrong to feel this way?
Jealousy go away
When you are out shopping and I'm home alone
Possessive emotions make me wish I'd gone
I look for your car lights coming up the hill
Want to tell you I miss you ... just can't get my fill
Possessive emotions make me feel so low
Don't want to be lonesome cause it hurts me so
I've got to be with you everywhere you go
If you talk to somebody I just got to know
Is it wrong to feel this way?
Jealousy go away
If I didn't feel this way about my girl
That she was the only one in all the world
I wouldn't be caring for her quite so strong
Maybe it's why my love has been going so long
