

John Mayall, So Hard To Share

So hard to share, the one you love with another guy
So hard to share, one you love with another guy
When she's with you, you fear your time will soon expire

Where are you girl? I want to love you when I can Where are you girl? Want to love you when I can

If he keeps you locked up, all my wishes have no chance

If she loves him that's OK, yeah, I want to step back keep control
If she loves him that's OK, I want to step back keep control
He knows she'll never leave me, [lyrics indistinct]
