

John Mayer, Everything Is Not Broken (Live)

the autumn leaves so dry and sweet tells me everything is not broken no everything is not broken
if everything's not fine

that you could be all here with me

more wasted funerals in time, in time
cuz everything is not broken
everything will be fine
will be fine (be fine)
will be fine
