

John Mayer, Quiet (Bonus Track)

midnight
lock all the doors and turn out the lights feels like the end of the world this sunday night
there's not a sound outside the snow's coming down somehow i can't seem to find a quiet inside my mind 3:02
the space in this room has turned on me
and all my fears have cornered me here me and my tv screen
the volume's down blue lights are dancing around and still i can't seem to find the quiet inside my mind daylight is climbing the walls cars start and feet walk the halls the world wakes and now i am safe at least by the light of day
