

John Mayer, Unknown

Midnight. Lock all the doors
And turn out the lights
Feels like the end of the world
This Sunday night.
Theres not a sound
Outside the snows comin down
And somehow I cant seem to find
A quiet inside my mind
Three o two. The space in this room has turned on me.
All my fears have cornered me here.
Me and my TV screen.
The volumes down.
Blue lights are dancing around
And still I cant seem to find the quiet inside my mind.
Do do do do do oh yeah
Daylight is climbin the walls
Cars start the fear of the halls
The world awakes and now im safe
At least by the light of day.
At least by the light of day.
Hmm day.
