

John Mellencamp, Sidewalk And Streetlights

Homicide on the edge of town,
And no one said it be easy
Sure has its ups and downs,
And Garfield is laughing
Sitting in a dark room,
Making love with Sylvannia
No so called friends around,
Cigarettes and champagne
Gonna make me a big star,
Oh haven't you heard yet
Don't know how its going to go,
Too young to tell
And if it's just my name,
Well hell I can change it
And if it's for the fame,
I guess I better grab it fast
But it's just a dangerous game,
That you're playing, oow
And you play it so well,
So let's play it again

Sidewalks and Streetlights,
Sure make a pretty picture
Strangers in the night,
Are you going my way
You can drop me off at the corner,
I can walk the rest of the way
It's not that far to the nearest star
And if it's for the money,
Hey why can't I have it
And if it's for the glory,
I guess I better grab it fast
But it's just a dangerous game,
That you're playing, oow
And you play it so well,
So let's play it again, oow
Let's play it again
