

John Miles, Good, So Bad

I've lost where I'm going
No one beside me showing how.
Won't you look at me now?
We talk, but we don't mean it,
I thought I'd really seen it all.
Even if I should fall.

I've waited all my life,
Cared what I did
Tried to find it,
I'll say it all my life.
I'll let you see
I just wanna be

Good so bad.
I wanna be good so bad.
I just wanna be good so bad.
I wanna be good so bad.

Why wake me if I'm dreaming
Don't break if you're not feeling sure.
Never been here before.
Too many days were empty,
I'll change my ways, you set me free
Are you thinking of me?
I close my eyes at night
Not believing what I'm feeling.
Those times when nothing's right
Please forgive me, I just wanna be

Good so bad.
I wanna be good so bad.
I just wanna be good so bad.
I wanna be good so bad.

I close my eyes at night
Not believing what I'm feeling.
Those times when nothing's right
Please forgive me, I just wanna be

Good so bad.
I wanna be good so bad.
I just wanna be good so bad.
I wanna be good so bad.

I just wanna be good so bad.
I wanna be good so bad.
I just wanna be good so bad.
I wanna be good so bad.
