

John Newman, Feelings

You gave a warning
But you never give the signals
That I'm wanting
You know that I crave all your attention
It's danger, mmhm

I don't know if this is it
Is this it to you?
When you say you do, you don't
Leaving me no clue
If yes is no and no is yes
Tell me what you want
How am I meant to know what's going on?

You... yeah
You never give the feelings that I want
You... yeah
You never give the feelings that I want
You never give the feelings that I want
You... yeah
You never give the feelings that I want

Knife's edge
Living on both sides
I don't know what's best
I need you to tell me
Don't know what's next
Be honest, mmhm
Oooh yeah

I don't know if this is it
Is this it to you?
When you say you do, you don't
Leaving me no clue
If yes is no and no is yes
Tell me what you want
How am I meant to know what's going on?

You... yeah
You never give the feelings that I want
You... yeah
You never give the feelings that I want
You never give the feelings that I want
You... yeah
You never give the feelings that I want

I don't know if this is it
Is this it to you?
When you say you do, you don't
Leaving me no clue
If yes is no and no is yes
Tell me what you want
How am I meant to know what's going on?

You... yeah
You never give the feelings that I want
You... yeah
You never give the feelings that I want
You never give the feelings that I want
You... yeah
You never give the feelings that I want
