

John O'Callaghan, Take it all away

(Feat. Aundrey Gallagher)

I wanna fall to pieces
Take another piece of me
Take it anyway you need it
What you get or what you see
There really isn't any secret
And with the hand as cold as ice
Ohh, there you go
Take it all away
Watching as you break
All I am is you
Take it all away
I wanna fall to pieces
I wanna fall to pieces
Turn around and walk away
Find a different kind of vision
When you take all you came to take
When you said all you came to say
Ohh, and you know
Take it all away
Watching as you break
All I am is you
Take it all away
I wanna fall to pieces
You take all you came to take
You take all you came to take
You say all you came to say
All I am is you
Take it all away
I wanna fall to pieces
