

John Porter, No way to say goodbye (feat. Agata

There's no way to say goodbye x2
Left my door open but they've all just stayed inside
Last traces of you being around

Purely a nightmare living in The room without your eyes Staying up all night every night to discover you're out of sight Grant me a wish like A farewell birthday card
But I know it won't come back

There's no way to say goodbye x2
No star-crossed lovers just a needy work of art
Last traces of you being around

Shamelessly hoping for a reunion from time to time
Don't need A case of you just A sip will do the harm Not A hasty type but what a fucking disgrace
That someone might take your place

There's no way to say goodbye x2
Left my door open and they've all
just stayed inside
Strangely familiar taste in mouth

Nothing meaningless about you dear Every car ride, party Time, glass of wine Everything was you Greediness tenderness got invented for us two
And your day drinking serves as my favourite proof
You got me all over you
