

John Prine, If You Were The Woman And I Was T

If you were the woman and I was the man
Would I send you yellow roses?
Would I dare to kiss your hand?
In the morning would I caress you as the wind caresses the sand,
If you were the woman and I was the man?

If I was the heart and you were the head
Would you think me very foolish if one day I decided to shed these walls that surround me just to see where these feelings led,
if I was the heart and you were the head?

If I was the woman and you were the man Would I laugh if you came to me with your heart in your hand and said, "I offer you this freely and will give you all that I can because you are the woman and I am the man?"
