

JOHNNY MARR, Somewhere

I was living in my own world
Running from the get go
See the destination
Looking for a free ride
Mixing up illusion
Making up my own mind
Super stupefaction
Dreaming up a good time

Just like I was someone
Just like everyone
Living for a moment
Try not to see the headlines
Too much information
Something doesn't feel right
Hiding out in plain sight
Thinking up the know-how
Getting in the picture
Living in the abstract now
On and on
Now or never
The game for everyone
Round and round
We go together
This way for everyone
A game for me
And I just knew

Somewhere
These dreams wait
'Cos Somethings coming
Do you feel it?
Someday
Don't need to wait
'Cos somethings coming
Believe it

Living in my own world
Running from the get go
Mixing up illusion
Dreaming up my own good time
Living for a moment
Hiding out in plain sight
Some stupid new attraction
Mixing up the abstract now
Somewhere
Dreams wait
Somewhere
Someday
Those dreams wait
'Cos somethings coming
Believe it
This way for everyone
