

Johnny Mathis, The Flame Of Love

The flame of love is burning low
And soon the flame will die
And then my love the time will come
To kiss and say good-bye

The flame burn bright and oh so fast
It never had a chance to last
But let there be
No tears for us
Lets keep the memory of. . .
The warm excitement when met and lit the flame of love

The flame burned and oh so fast
It never had a chance to last
But let there be
No tears for us
Lets keep the memory of. . .
The warm excitement when met
And lit the flame of love
The flame of love
The flame of love
