

Johnny O'Keefe, Don't You Know

Eah i'll walk across the burnin' sands
Just to prove that i'm your lovin' ma-a-an
Swing a hammer poundin' steel on steel
Just to show my love for you is real

Well don't you know (yeah-yeah) that my love is real
Well don't you know (yeah-yeah) my love is strong as steel
Well don't you know (yeah-yeah), well don't you know (yeah-yeah)
Well don't you know (yeah-yeah), well don't you know (yeah-yeah)
Well don't you know pretty baby, all my loving belongs-a to you

I hang around you mornin', noon and night
To make-a sure that everything's alri-i-ight
And when the lonely evenin' shadows fall
I'll be around just to hear your call

Well don't you know (yeah-yeah) my love is real
Well don't you know (yeah-yeah) my love is strong as steel
Well don't you know (yeah-yeah), well don't you know (yeah-yeah)
Well don't you know-ow (yeah-yeah), well don't you know-ow
Don't you know pretty baby, all my loving belongs to you

Woh, yeah, yeah, yeah (yeah-yeah-yeah)

Yeah-eah-eah-eah-eah-eah-e-e-es
I'd walk across the burning sands
Just to prove that i'm your lovin' ma-a-an
Swing a hammer pounding steel on steel
Just to show my love for you is real

Well don't you know (yeah-yeah) that my love is real
Oh don't you know (yeah-yeah) my love is strong as steel
Well don't you know (yeah-yeah), oh don't you know (yeah-yeah)
Oh don't you know (yeah-yeah), oh don't you know (yeah-yeah)
Oh don't you know pretty baby, all my loving belongs-a to you
