

Johnny Tillotson, Tomorrow

Tomorrow is gonna be a better day
Tomorrow is gonna be a better day
We'll have steak instead of beans and no more turnip greens
Tomorrow's gonna be a better day

Tomorrow the sun's gonna shine
Tomorrow everything is gonna be fine
No sorrow and no cares milk and honey everywhere
Tomorrow's gonna be a better day

Tomorrow tomorrow there'll be a new day tomorrow
And if we try and hope and pray tomorrow's gonna be a better day

Tomorrow I'll kiss my blues goodbye
And like a bird I'll up and fly
I'll leave that gal of mine she's just a troubleing kind
Tomorrow's gonna be a better day

Tomorrow tomorrow...

Tomorrow a cool wind's gonna blow
Tomorrow I'll forget the pain I know
Harsh words are never here bad news will disapper
Tomorrow's gonna be a better day
And I'm packed and I'm gonna be on my way
Tomorrow's gonna be a better day
