

Jojo, Creature of Habit

Sometimes i fantasize
That you're cheating on me
Or we fight so bad you walk out on me

So that i won't be the bad guy
Turn the tables on me
Mess i tup alittel karma honey

I want something more
I wanna love some random stranger
On the floor of some sleazy hotel some far away
But there's always an excuse to stay home

A creature of habit
I am hooked once i have it
And my habits you
Always you

A creature of habit
Want that dramatic
But my habits you
Always you
