

Jon B., Lately

Verse 1:

Pretty young thing, sexy young girl, I've been thinking about
How we use to share one world but that's over now
Life without you just ain't life and it's killing me
Cause we just walked away, turned our backs on a beautiful dream
I want you back cause I'm in need
All I need, all I need to know, have you thought about me

Chorus:

Lately, all the trouble we use to get in my baby
Lately, in the back seat of my Benz now baby
Lately, we'll let the top drop, you'll get on top baby
Lately, have you thought about me, thought about me

Verse 2:

Girl I was wrong, so dead wrong with those things I did
How could I lie, how could I cheat, how'd you put up with it
Now just like L.L., man I need love but you're so far away
You put it on me, this players' so lonely
There's got to be away
I want you back cause I'm in need
All I need, all I need to know, have you thought about me

[Chorus]

Bridge:

What keeps me missing all that good love
My psyche won't let me forget all the good love we made
Though we're worlds apart, I'm stil buggin' on it lately

[Chorus]
