

Jon Bon Jovi, Bobby's Girl

I'd give you my ring, I'd fill you with promises
I'd give you anything you want
If you told me that we could be more than friends
Run with me baby, on a magic carpet ride
Well live for tomorrow, everything'll be alright
Cause it don't matter what they say

She's Bobby's girl, Johnny, you're playing with dynamite.
She's Bobby's girl, close the door baby, it'll be alright
Come on, lets go

When they say she's Bobby's girl, Johnny, you're playing with dynamite
She's Bobby's girl, close the door honey, it'll be alright now

She's Bobby's girl, come on baby, come with me tonight
She's Bobby's girl, close the door baby, it'll be alright now
